Dear Burt:

Thank you for your letter of 26 March addressed to Tony with which you transmitted several birth certificates for our scrutiny. These are being returned to you herewith with the following comments:

25X1A

[redacted] have submitted birth certificates which are in good order and which will be acceptable upon application for a passport.

25X1A

25X1A

Since [redacted] birth certificate shows spelling of last name [redacted] it will be necessary for him to present a birth affidavit signed by a person who has known him by such name for at least 20 years.

25X1A

[redacted], as reported in our TWX sent today, will also have to present affidavits from two persons who have known him by such name for at least 20 years or have school records to substantiate that he has been known as [redacted]

25X1A

25X1A

Since [redacted] has already applied for a passport, and if he did not have any difficulty in so doing, his birth certificate does not need scrutiny. If he had legal proof of his name being changed as shown on his birth certificate, he should have had no trouble.

Sincerely,

Bill
